

GULFSTREAM COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIP SCHOOL

Gulfstream Early Learning Center and Gulfstream Academy are two public, non-charter schools established in 2016

Gulfstream Academy K-8 Students

1,366 K-8 students

89.6% receive free and reduced lunch

41.1% are identified as English Learners

15.5% have been identified with special learning needs

Gulfstream Early Learning Center Students (0-5)

118 pre-K students

100% receive free and reduced lunch

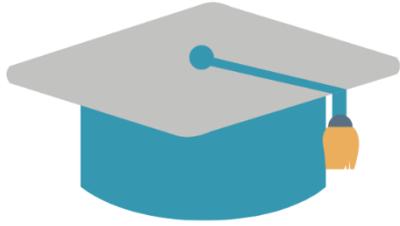

47.2% are identified as English Learners

7.6% have been identified with special learning needs

Note: Percentages used in this slide is from Gulfstream's 2020 Needs Assessment Report Findings

Both schools are located in the city of Hallandale Beach

Educational Attainment

32.5% of adults (ages 25+) have a High School diploma or GED

20.2% of adults (ages 25+) have a Bachelor's Degree or higher

Household Income

$39,914 is the City of Hallandale's median household income

65% of all households earn more than the Federal Poverty Level, but less than the basic cost of living for Broward County

Physical Health and Access to Healthcare

11.2% of adults report having no insurance coverage for healthcare expenses

85% of adults report one or more cardiovascular risk factors, such as being overweight, or having high blood pressure or cholesterol

Note: Percentages used in this slide is from Gulfstream's 2020 Needs Assessment Report Findings

In 2019, the United Way of Broward joined five partners in establishing a Community Partnership School at Gulfstream Academy

The Community Partnership School (CPS) model has four model components. A “Community school” is a term used to define an approach used to improve the success of students, families and a community through collaborations between a school and a community partner(s).

Note: The graphic was created by the UCF Center for Community Schools and is taken from their presentation “An Orientation to Planning”

The core partners represent various organizations— Gulfstream has six core partners

University or College

School
District

Nonprofit

Healthcare
Provider

The CPS model is supported by four pillars that contribute to the success and sustainability of the model

Gulfstream Academy, with the support from core partners, will implement several processes, programs and services on campus aligned to the pillars.

Note: The graphic was created by the UCF Center for Community Schools and is taken from their presentation "An Orientation to Planning"

Pillar 1: Collaborative Leadership

A culture of shared governance and collective decision-making toward a unified vision to identify needs and provide resources in the school and community.

Note: The graphic was created by the UCF Center for Community Schools and is taken from their presentation "An Orientation to Planning"

Pillar 2: Expanded Learning

Academic support and enrichment that takes place before and after school, during weekends and summer, to augment traditional learning during the school day such as tutoring, mentorship programs, leadership opportunities, etc.

Note: The graphic was created by the UCF Center for Community Schools and is taken from their presentation "An Orientation to Planning"

Pillar 3: Wellness Supports

Access to a range of health and social services that are provided on the school's campus such as dental treatment, medical services, vision care, behavioral health counseling and health insurance access.

Note: The graphic was created by the UCF Center for Community Schools and is taken from their presentation "An Orientation to Planning"

Pillar 4: Family and Community Engagement

Bringing families and the community into the school as partners in student's success AND making the school a neighborhood center that provides adult enrichment opportunities. Examples of services and programs under this pillar are a parent resource center, clothes and food pantry, etc.

Note: The graphic was created by the UCF Center for Community Schools and is taken from their presentation "An Orientation to Planning"

The goal is for Gulfstream Academy to be certified by UCF as a Community Partnership School by year 5

← Implementation Phase →

2019-20	2020-21	2021-22	2022-23	2023-24	2024-25	2025-26
Planning Period	Hybrid Planning	Implementation Year 1	Implementation Year 2	Implementation Year 3	Implementation Year 4	Implementation Year 5
Submit Planning Registration form to join certification track	Begins July 1 after CPS director is hired	Begin implementation	Submit Intent-to-Certify form and schedule certification review	Prepare for and complete Certification Readiness Assessment	Continue implementation	Prepare for and complete Certification Assessment

A UCF-CERTIFIED

COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIP SCHOOL

CENTER FOR COMMUNITY SCHOOLS

To be certified as a community partnership school, Gulfstream Academy has to follow and meet 12 standards

Standard 1 – Partnership

Standard 2 – Collaborative Leadership, Governance and structure

Standard 3 – Foundational Principles

Standard 4 – Staffing

Standard 5 – Integrated Community Partnership School Framework

Standard 6 – Expanded Learning Opportunities

Standard 7 – Comprehensive Learning Supports

Standard 8 – Family and Community Engagement

Standard 9 – Volunteering

Standard 10 – University/College Assistance

Standard 11 – Evaluation

Standard 12 – Sustainability

There are four governance and operating groups essential to the Community Partnership School (CPS) model

Standard 2 – Collaborative Leadership, Governance and structure

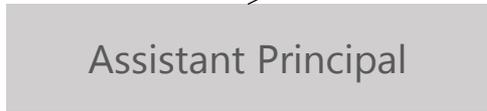

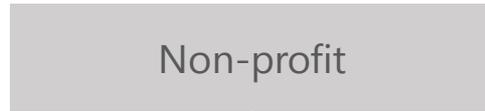

Aside from the cabinet, there is an operations team that helps to operationalize the model and is aligned to the four pillars

Note: The graphic was created by the UCF Center for Community Schools and is taken from their presentation "An Orientation to Planning"

The operations team is made up of four core staff positions

The UWBC is having a direct impact on 1,400+ students and their families

A few 2020-2021 Goals

1

Complete a strategic planning process that sets goals, strategies and activities for the Community Partnership School for the next 5 years

2

Hire a Family and Community Engagement Coordinator—as well as seek additional staff (through programs such as AmeriCorps) to start in the 2021-22 school year

3

Establish the student and community leadership councils

