The Prevention Series

Cultural Awareness and Diversity

Presented by: Aisha T. McDonald, LMHC

The purpose of this training is to discuss the importance of cultural awareness and the impact of diversity in the communities we serve. It will offer distinction between moving away from the concept of cultural competency and focusing on building cultural awareness, cultural sensitivity, and cultural humility. Discussion will focus on ways to build skills towards cultural responsiveness and the importance of promoting diversity in the cultural context of the communities being served.
